The Prequel of the exciting feel-good fantasy

8-year-old Ruby Fairygale lives on a small island near the west coast of Ireland. After school, she always helps her grandmother, who works as a veterinarian. But the two of them have a big secret: they know that there are not only animals on the island, but also magical mythical creatures that need their help.

What happens in Volume 2:

Ruby finally has a best friend! Together with Bri, everything is much more fun. A pony race, for example. The winner gets a bag of candy from Kathleen's bakery. But as soon as they gallop away, Ruby discovers a little leprechaun with burn blisters. Then a fairy with scorched hair shows up – another burn? Something's not right! And indeed: a baby dragon with a cold has lost its way in the human world and sets Farmer Orin's barn on fire with its cough. Bri rescues the animals while Ruby has an idea: she makes cough drops for the dragon in Kathleen's bakery. The candies cure the little dragon's cough and the fairy brings him back to fairyland to his parents.
