Holy mackerel! All Alani and her friends wanted to do was to secretly try and save the stranded whale. Who would have thought that this would turn into the adventure of their lives? Not only does she have to grow human legs - no! She also meets her 'Sea Prince' again and falls head over tail in love all over again...

Dagmar H. Mueller

Dagmar Mueller studied sports and German language in Hamburg. She is an avid swimmer and surfer and likes to spend her time in or at least near the water. She often goes on holiday to the Atlantic coast to enjoy the sea and the good weather. Today she lives together with her family in an idyllic house on Europe's biggest island England and writes books for children and teenager which are successful all over the world.
