Fulminate finale of the epic Sword fantasy trilogy: After he has finally freed the island Andobras, Rai sails on to Seewaith. Here he uncovers the evil doings of the Citkirche: the servants of the Sun God have extended their influence across the entire world to gather the people of the East lands for a battle of hereto unknown dimensions. Arden and Arton will lead the enormous legions into battle with their mighty swords of Thousand Storm and Fire XXX. Their single enemy is the last and most powerful of all dragons. By his death the head of the church will repent an age old sin and move the gods to return to earth. Too late the half brothers discover the identity of their true enemy and thus the invincible castle Arch Themur, the Shield of the Gods, becomes the last bastion in the battle for the survival of all mankind.
