Strong and Confident at School – Definitely

Hannah enjoys going to school - if only it weren't for Otis. He's really mean to her. Even though her parents talk to the teacher, things don't improve. Otis keeps picking on Hannah, and it makes her very sad. But during one lesson, the rest of the class shows how powerful it can be when everyone stands together. They stand up for Hannah, showing their support. After all, every child is unique and has something that sets them apart from the others. That's true for Hannah, and it's true for Otis too. And that's something very, very special.

The Concept of the Reading Lions Strong and Confident at School Series combines exciting stories for beginning readers with important factual knowledge. Plenty of colorful illustrations and short sentences help children understand the content. Not only do they practice reading, but they also gain valuable information in a playful way, equipping them with the courage and confidence to face the challenges of everyday school life. This is how they become strong for school!

Jana Frey

Jana Frey was born in 1969. She started writing when she was only five years old. After studying literature, history and arts she founded a family. Jana Frey has published numerous books for children and young adults and has been awarded several times. Many of her books have been translated into various languages. Her literary range covers picture books and novels for early readers as well as novels for YA-readers. Jana Frey succeeds in combining true background stories with fictitious elements - her nomination for the "German Adolescents Literature Award" (Deutscher Jugendliteraturpreis) with her title "Downward Flight" ("Höhenflug abwärts") bears evidence of her talent. In spring 2006 her well-researched and captivatingly written historic novel "Prügelknabe" attracted the critic's attention. Jana Frey lives in Wiesbaden with her family.
