The little fairy Emma has a very long wish list. She wants golden wings, a pony and her own castle. She wants to make all her dreams come true with a golden wand... Emma's best friend Egon is puzzled. Why on earth does Emma need golden elf wings and a spotted pony? But Emma absolutely must have all this, and once she finds a golden wand, wishing begins in earnest for the little fairy ... An enchanting picture-book adventure about far too many wishes and a great friendship!

Jana Frey

Jana Frey was born in 1969. She started writing when she was only five years old. After studying literature, history and arts she founded a family. Jana Frey has published numerous books for children and young adults and has been awarded several times. Many of her books have been translated into various languages. Her literary range covers picture books and novels for early readers as well as novels for YA-readers. Jana Frey succeeds in combining true background stories with fictitious elements - her nomination for the "German Adolescents Literature Award" (Deutscher Jugendliteraturpreis) with her title "Downward Flight" ("Höhenflug abwärts") bears evidence of her talent. In spring 2006 her well-researched and captivatingly written historic novel "Prügelknabe" attracted the critic's attention. Jana Frey lives in Wiesbaden with her family.
