Why's that? That's why!

Theo and his cuddly toy Tiger are the very best of friends. They do everything together: Eating breakfast, getting dressed, going to kindergarten, playing, and reading.

And Tiger has a question about everything: Why do we have to get up? Why are the other children allowed to play, too? And why does Theo have to brush his teeth? How good that Theo knows so much! And why do Theo and Tiger actually love each other so much? That's why!

Julia Boehme lovingly narrates a story that humorously plays with children's curiosity, atmospherically illustrated in a funny picture book that is very close to children's everyday lives, about the special relationship between child and cuddly toy, Theo's thirst for knowledge and questions children think about.

Julia Boehme

Julia Boehme studied literature and music and afterwards worked as an editor for a children's TV programme. One day she remembered that as a child she had wanted to become a writer. Right away she decided that from now on she was going to be a writer exclusively. Ever since she is creating new stories for television and writes children's books.
