In this turbulent second volume of the Vampire Sisters, Daka and Sylvania try to think of the best way to tell Helene their secret - that they are actually half-vampires - now, that she is their best friend. How will she react? Then things turn very dangerous when Daka and Sylvania are taken hostages at a robbery of the museum where their grandmother works. The twins decide that the strict no-flying rule of their mother's doesn't count in situations of extreme danger and together they use their talents in order to save themselves and their grandmother from the hands of their kidnappers.
