Well prepared for school

Being a schoolchild means becoming independent. Suddenly there are many new challenges, which is not easy at all. The stories in this series will prepare your child for school!

Practise walking to school with Alma

Alma really wants to go to school on her own soon. So she practises with Grandpa how to behave properly in traffic. At zebra crossings, they look left, right and left. And of course they stop at the red traffic lights. But then a duckling runs out into the road just like that. What should Alma do now?

Jana Frey

Jana Frey was born in 1969. She started writing when she was only five years old. After studying literature, history and arts she founded a family. Jana Frey has published numerous books for children and young adults and has been awarded several times. Many of her books have been translated into various languages. Her literary range covers picture books and novels for early readers as well as novels for YA-readers. Jana Frey succeeds in combining true background stories with fictitious elements - her nomination for the "German Adolescents Literature Award" (Deutscher Jugendliteraturpreis) with her title "Downward Flight" ("Höhenflug abwärts") bears evidence of her talent. In spring 2006 her well-researched and captivatingly written historic novel "Prügelknabe" attracted the critic's attention. Jana Frey lives in Wiesbaden with her family.
