"No one had to complete me. I was a whole person on my own. But what if two whole people suddenly became one?"

Via Interrail through Scandinavia: the video project is Tillie's last chance for a scholarship. The catch? She needs help for professional content. She even has the perfect travel partner: photography student Jonathan. But Tillie broke his brother's heart and Jonathan has hated her ever since. Reluctantly, he agrees - on the condition that he may photograph the tattoo on her thigh. What she did not take into account: That he won't look away when he sees the scars under the ink. That he is always looking at Tillie ...

The continuation of the Jetzt trilogy: unsparingly honest, poetic and romantic.

In the second volume of her new-adult trilogy for Gen Z, SPIEGEL bestselling author Gabriella Santos de Lima links social taboo topics with cutting-edge issues surrounding relationships, social media, and mental health, generating long-overdue visibility.

Gabriella Santos de Lima

Gabriella Santos de Lima, born in São Paulo in 1997, has the same weakness for romance novels as her protagonist Helena. She prefers to write them with the music turned up loud and a view of pulsating city centers. The SPIEGEL-bestselling author was a flight attendant before devoting herself entirely to her books.
