One day Jannik finds a magically illuminated sword in the forest. He is barely holding it in his hands when he finds himself transported to a fantastic world full of adventures and magical creatures. The inhabitants of this magical world realize that Jannik is the destined bearer of the magical sword Falibur. They ask him to rid their world of the terrifying werewolves. Together with Falibur and his sister Lea, Jannik enters the fight. Our new series aim at first readers with a high reading proficiency. One longer story gives children the opportunity to read their very first “novel”. The extent and layout of these series make sure that children do not overexert themselves and that their motivation to read is not diminished. With “The Magical Sword” there is now an attractive series for boys available.
