Through the darkness

Tabio, Miaka and Senri want to become ninjas. They practise every day. One evening, they are late making their way back to the village. The gate is already locked. But nothing can stop ninjas, right?

In the Picture Mouse series, exciting stories tell of the adventures of a lovable character or an exciting location. In the text, all nouns are replaced by small pictures that children from the age of 5 can recognise and name when reading (aloud) together. In this way, children are gently introduced to the process of reading and have already "read" their first book before they start school!

- Pictures replace nouns
- For reading aloud and reading along
- Large, easy-to-read font

Henriette Wich

Henriette Wich was born in Landshut in 1970 and she grew up with six siblings and three cats. For as long as she was a child, she has been enjoying coming up with stories. After she got her degree in German language studies and Philosophy she has worked in the editorial department of children's books publishers. She has been working as a freelance author of children's and juvenile books for several years now. 11 nephews and nieces provide her with enough material for her books.
