For Better Reading.

Swish! When the ball sails through the net without touching the rim – that’s the best sound in the world.

At least, that’s what Billy and Anna think. But when Billy invites Anna to come to basketball practice, she hesitates. She just can’t make a basket when other people are watching – how could she ever play for a real team? Together, the two train hard, again and again, until Anna finally nails it. And at her very first game, there’s even a real pro basketball player watching from the stands!

The Reading Lions (Year 3) are designed for children who still struggle with reading. Exciting stories combined with cool illustrations and an innovative layout, providing motivation and making reading extra fun!
