The third step on the Reading Ladder again has many stories in store. With the Reading Pirates titles children are now able to read a number of exciting and fun stories centering on a specific subject. Clearly arranged and supported by many illustrations in colour the texts are easy to understand and fun to read. The children will find titles on friendship, holidays and animals, castles and knights and many, many more themes.

THiLO

THiLO spent the first 20 years of his life in the children's corner of his parents' bookshop. He then travelled in Africa, Asia and Central America before successfully touring with friends as a cabaret trio. Today THiLO lives in Mainz with his family and writes stories and scripts for TV programmes.
