Learning to Read with Pictures.

Moritz is excited: Today he's going out to the field with the tractor! But suddenly, the engine roars like an angry dragon. Luckily, Moritz has a brilliant idea – and soon the tractor is ready for action! But then a storm rolls in, and the tractor has to prove what it's made of ...

The Picture Mouse series tells exciting adventure stories of a lovable character or an exciting location. In the text, all nouns are replaced with small pictures that children from the age of 5 can recognize and name when reading (aloud) together. This gently introduces children to the process of reading, allowing them to "read" their first book even before starting school!

Henriette Wich

Henriette Wich was born in Landshut in 1970 and she grew up with six siblings and three cats. For as long as she was a child, she has been enjoying coming up with stories. After she got her degree in German language studies and Philosophy she has worked in the editorial department of children's books publishers. She has been working as a freelance author of children's and juvenile books for several years now. 11 nephews and nieces provide her with enough material for her books.
