"I don't want a kiss!" says Lotta self-confidently, when she doesn't want to be kissed at her aunt's birthday party. Because Lotta knows that she must say no clearly when she finds something unpleasant or frightening. For example, when she doesn't want to be disturbed while she's having a bath. And the salesman in the zoo shop is of course not allowed to touch her! A sensitive picture book on an explosive subject.

Jana Frey

Jana Frey was born in 1969. She started writing when she was only five years old. After studying literature, history and arts she founded a family. Jana Frey has published numerous books for children and young adults and has been awarded several times. Many of her books have been translated into various languages. Her literary range covers picture books and novels for early readers as well as novels for YA-readers. Jana Frey succeeds in combining true background stories with fictitious elements - her nomination for the "German Adolescents Literature Award" (Deutscher Jugendliteraturpreis) with her title "Downward Flight" ("Höhenflug abwärts") bears evidence of her talent. In spring 2006 her well-researched and captivatingly written historic novel "Prügelknabe" attracted the critic's attention. Jana Frey lives in Wiesbaden with her family.
