- Hours of hidden object fun, in large format
- Exciting topic: the fire brigade

It's all hands to the pump at the fire station, with a multi-coloured myriad of objects to search for, find and talk about. With these hidden object scenes, inquisitive little ones can learn about all the exciting jobs that firefighters do – we join them as they put out a house fire, rescue a kitten from a tree and lift a fallen tree from the railway track. The little toy fire engine is hidden on every page for children to look for.
