First Independent Reading.

Magic horse Sanni loves to conjure up whatever comes to her mind – soap bubbles, rainbows, and everything that’s fun. But she’s supposed to stick to the spellbook and follow all the rules. How boring! Then the spellbook is stolen. Now Sanni’s imagination is needed more than ever. Will she be able to get it back?

With the Reading Lions (Year 1) children can read their very first book all on their own. Exciting stories about engaging themes and characters, plenty of colorful illustrations, short sentences, and small text sections support the learning-to-read process. The large, easy-to-read font was specifically designed for beginner readers and is also suitable for children with dyslexia. Syllable coloring makes it easier to recognize words. Question pages after each chapter and fun factual information at the end of the story help young readers effortlessly check their understanding. Learning to read has never been this fun!
