A mystery at the amusement park

Kira and her family go on a trip to a big amusement park – and naturally they smuggle in Winston the cat, hidden inside a rucksack! Everyone has lots of fun... until Winston goes missing. But Winston, who is a cat of the world, soon manages to join a pirate show as a stunt cat. Meanwhile, a gang of thieves is wreaking havoc in the park – and when his new actress colleague comes under suspicion, Winston has his paws full trying to prove her innocence.

Frauke Scheunemann

Frauke Scheunemann was born in 1969 in Düsseldorf, and qualified as a lawyer. She started by working on a placement with the North German Radio, and ended up as a journalist and press spokesperson. Since 2002 she has been a freelance author and writes very successful novels with her sister Wiebke Lorenz under the Anne Hertz pseudonym. The entire Anne Hertz output amounts to one million books. In 2010 Scheunemann's first solo novel appeared, called Dackelblick, which was an instant bestseller and became the first volume in a much-loved series. Frauke Scheunemann is married and lives in Hamburg with her husband and four children, and Elmo the dog.
