THE CRAZY DAY OF THE DANDELION!

Toni wants to play with her mum and dad – hide and seek or on the see-saw, but her parents are just too big for everything. Disappointed, Toni picks a dandelion, blows hard wishes, everything would be different. And hey presto! Suddenly her parents shrink until they are as small as Toni. Now they can play together. But what a pity! Her tiny parents can't get the cookies out of the cupboard anymore. So Toni makes a wish on the dandelion again, and this time, she grows big. Now, she's got to do the cooking, but when Dad and Mum run around getting in her way, Toni realises that it can be tiring being a grown up, too. Will a third dandelion make everything normal again?

Franziska Gehm

Franziska Gehm was born in 1974. She studied English, psychology and intercultural economy communication in Germany, England and Ireland. After finishing her studies she worked at a grammar school in Denmark, for a German radio station and in a publishing house.
