A Vampire Brother for Daka and Silvania!

Although his name (Franz!) doesn't sound particularly vampire-ish, this new earth dweller is more of an air-dweller and very similar to his vampire daddy (if one disregards his favourite food, which is garlic, and his terrible stinky farts). However, father Mihai is behaving very strangely – he calls his son Olga and dress him in frilly pink rompers. Schlotz zoppo – something's not right here! Has he got a dark secret?

Once again, Franziska Gehm has produced a wonderfully witty story, brimming with amazing ideas, for the eleventh volume of her successful series. The vampire sisters have to save their farting, garlic sucking and truly sweet brother from an alchemist, because in his youth, their father got into a lot of trouble and gambled away his first-born son...
