The ninth title in our very popular board series “Can You Find It?” is a Christmas title. Each page invites the children to search for the little gift that is hidden somewhere in the colourful milling masses. Whether it is looking for the perfect Christmas tree, on the Christmas market or among the gnomes in the snow – there are stories to tell and objects to look for. Concept: - numerous peepholes create amusing surprises - busy pictures with plenty to look at - short texts motivate children to look for an object - ideal picture book for the entire family - 9 titles available - co-editions scheduled bi-annually
