A new series for boys and girls aged 9+, combining the classic adventure story with the early reader's need of a clear language, simple structures and characters they can relate to. A life of pink dresses, parties and rich people? Princess Lara has had enough of all of that! What she wants now are adventures and excitement. Secretly she leaves the castle and joins her friends down at the harbour. Together they dream of going to sea as real pirates. They would sail the oceans and capture many treasures. The five friends finally manage to get their hands on a real ship, at a bargain and just a little old... This is a story for girls and boys who dream of a life full of adventures. With the help of the illustrations by Elisabeth Holzhausen Princess Lara becomes alive as a true childhood hero.
