Franziska Moll (Loewe)

author

Franziska Moll is actually called Sabine Both and she lives with her twin daughters in an idyllic little village near Cologne. After working with drug dependent young people, she discovered that she could write. She studied at the International Film School to learn everything she needed to know about good scriptwriting, and went on to write sitcoms and ideas for films. However, it was only when she decided to concentrate on writing novels that she found her dream profession. The inspiration for Was ich dich träumen lasse came from her own experience, and it has helped strengthen her hope that each time fate deals a blow, something good can come out of it.
