About the power of art, friendship and love – this very special love story will warm your heart

They are talented street artists and have been best friends for as long as they can remember. Their pieces appear all over town, on walls, metro carriages and abandoned factory buildings, but nobody knows who is behind the mysterious BLUX tag. Jonas and Leander. Leander and Jonas. Nothing can come between them.

Until Leander falls in love with Lila, the cute girl with the golden hair long enough to sit on. And Jonas stumbles across the myth of the Chinese paintbrush and paints himself into a crisis. A book about friendship and art, about the deepest despair and the utmost devotion, and an all-redeeming love. This is a book that will warm the heart.

Irmgard Kramer

Irmgard Kramer was born in 1969 in Vorarlberg and grew up in an old house that felt alive. After nineteen years of being a primary school teacher, she threw away her chalks and now lives as a freelance author among mountains, cows and cheeses in Bregenzerwald. She writes stories for young and older readers, and for magazines.
