Story

This time Fiona goes on an excursion together with her stupid cousins 'The Rollmops'. Soon she finds out that there is something weird about that place. While Fiona tries to find out what's going on, suddenly her best friend Leonie disappears.

Key Points:

- series for first readers aged 8+
- realistic setting, everyday problems: animal thieves and neighbourhood burglars
- heavily illustrated in 4-colour
- simple layout and large fonts help children to train their reading proficiency

Bettina Belitz

Bettina Belitz was born in Heidelberg in 1973, and very soon fell under the spell of the book shelves. It wasn't long before reading wasn't enough – no, she had to scribble her own stories down, too. After university, Bettina Belitz worked as a journalist until she was able to devote herself to her youthful enthusiasms. Nowadays, she lives surrounded by horses, sheep, cats and chickens in a village of 400 inhabitants in Westerwald, where she is inspired by nature and weather to write her novels.
