Story

As soon as Billie sets foot on Italian soil, she feels that amore is in the air.

Billie has resolved not to spend her short language course in Verona just sipping cappuccino and learning vocab. Her host family has two cute sons whom she has her eye on already, and the city certainly has more than its fair share of other good-looking boys. But whether Billie goes out partying with Carlo the macho, whispers "ti amo" in charming Pietro's ear or strolls through the alleyways with Björn from another class in her year is all down to the reader to decide.
