Story

Neither knows it yet, but they are passionately in love with one another. Emily learns how to work magic - as a make-up artist at the opera. She cannot imagine anything more fascinating than turning other people into witches or raving beauties. But since she has met Paul, she would like to be exciting and enigmatic herself. And Paul apparently doesn't find her that bad, as he flirts with her all the time. Or does he do that with all women? Emily's heart belongs to Paul, but unfortunately he hasn't got one. Someone else, however, has long been aware of her inner magic ... Magically light and witty but nevertheless touching the heart – this series by Beatrix Mannel is all about the loveliest feeling in the world. And who wouldn't like to be passionately in love?
