Story

LIFE IS NOT A SOAP – OR IS IT? WHEN CHAOTIC FEELINGS CREATE THE PROGRAMME.

Fourteen year-old Abby is annoyed. As soon as the theme song for Ashworth Park starts playing, her big sister Deborah becomes unbearable. She is hopelessly addicted to the stories about the fabulously rich Ashworth family. Abby and her friend Morgan can only laugh themselves silly over these idiotic stories. But when Abby finds herself caught up in some mysterious way inside this series, it suddenly doesn't seem so funny, any more. That's because she's right in the middle of love affairs, intrigues and family secrets! How on earth is she ever going to get out of this place! With help from Morgan, Abby has a wonderful idea – they need to provide a happy ending!

Easier said than done, since the glamorous lead Julian falls in love with Abby, much to everyone's disgust, and chaos is built into the programme...

In the first volume of her new trilogy for girls, Sonja Kaiblinger displays yet again her incredibly sparky and original style. Roses and Soap Bubbles combines topics that girls are interested in (friendship, first love), with an extraordinary turn of events. The protagonist Abbey creates mayhem in all kinds of clichéd soap situations with her charm and wealth of ideas. Soap operas have never been so funny!

- Humorous and turbulent with a dash of romance!
- For Kerstin Gier fans
- Daily Soap as a parallel universe
- An exciting read for girls and young women!
