

Dr. Reinhard Barth

Guide to World History

Nachgefragt

illustriert von Constanze Guhr

12+ years, 1st edition 01/01/2008

144 Pages, 14.8 x 21.0 cm

ISBN 978-3-7855-6217-8

Paperback

6.95 € (D)

incl. VAT, shipping extra

Story

Who invented the first written characters? Since when have we had money? And where did democracy originate? Much that we take for granted today took centuries to develop. A Guide to World History outlines the most important events – Barth begins with the early dawn of mankind and follows our historical development all the way to the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Centre. The volume provides an overview of at least 600,000 years of human history.

- Basic questions and brief answers
- Open, honest and inspiring
- Short chapters and paragraphs give background information

- Encourages the readers to think about everyday problems

Reinhard Barth

Reinhard Barth was born in 1943. He studied history, German and philosophy. He started out as an author for radio plays and is now a writer for political magazines and encyclopaedias.

More titles in this series

Guide to German History

Guide to German Literature

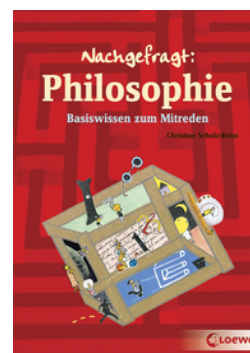

Guide to Economics

Guide to Human Rights and Democracy

Guide to Refugee Migration and Integration

Guide to Philosophy

Guide to Human Rights and Democracy