Story

People with various religious backgrounds encounter each other in our society. That's exciting and broadens one's horizon, but it also leads to conflicts from time to time. "Guide to World Religions" conveys the most important facts and correlations and thus enhances and supports our understanding for each other and makes us treat people of different creeds with more tolerance.
- the most important information on Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism and the Chinese religions
- with short biographies of the famous religious founders and prophets
- extensive key word index

Burkhard Weitz

Burkhard Weitz was born in 1965. As a child he lived in Bethlehem for a number of years. After finishing school he studied religious sciences and theology and has spent some time abroad, e.g. in Palestine and the US. While training to become a clergyman he taught religious education at school. Since 1999 he has been working as a journalist and editor for the Protestant magazine Chrismon. Today he lives in Frankfurt with his family.
