Story

THE SUNNIEST HOME IN THE WORLD

You couldn't wish for a better home than Sunny Farm, Theresa thinks. Her parents have purchased the old farmhouse with two other families, and restored it. Just looking at the yellow horseshoe-shaped house with the sun-dial makes anyone feel instantly happy. The best thing, though, is that Timo and Anna-Lina also live here, along with herself and her two brothers. Together, the children discover the planets Salatrix and Paradisical, save a mole from the garlic witch, and celebrate a spring blossoms party. Only in the country can you have so much fun!

Annette Moser's stories about the children's lives with their families in Sunny Farm are delightfully heart-warming. The children play together, throw parties and explore the countryside. There's a special extra, in the form of recipes and tips for craftwork.

- An on-trend theme: living in the country
