- Memory album for a best friend with illustrations and letterings by typealive

For young girls, it's important to show their best friend how important she is to them. To gift a memory album that you can hold in your hands is a special present, especially in times where everything happens online. In this album, you can fill in information about the individual friendship – milestones, coolest experiences, selfies, to-do-lists, etc. It also contains lettering pages that one can design individually. The authors are best friends and in the age of the target group. That makes their approach to friendship authentic and readers can easily connect.
