Story

Everyone can sometimes get sick, sad or angry. In that case, a lot of confidence and comfort can help! This bind-up deals in a sensitive way with important topics that children worry about. A careful selection of stories help to talk with children honestly, openly and in an age-appropriate way about their feelings, and show possible courses of action for dealing with their feelings.

The internationally bestselling picture book series on Emotional Education has been translated into 22 languages and sold over 1 million copies. This bind-up includes three picture books:

- What to Do When I Am Sad
- I Can Stand Up to Bullies
- About Being Sick and Staying Healthy

Dagmar Geisler

Dagmar Geisler was born in 1958 in Siegen and studied drawing in Wiesbaden. After graduating in 1984, she worked as graphic designer and illustrator for several publishing houses and broadcasting companies. In 1987 Dagmar Geisler illustrated her first book for children, the "Leselöwen-Quatschgeschichten" by Manfred Mai. From now on she focused on drawing comics and illustrations for children's books, which have been awarded several times. For some years now she also writes successful children's books. Her educational picture books deal with recent and sensitive issues. With her sensitive stories Dagmar Geisler succeeds very well to transport useful preventive measures not only from an educational perspective, but also with a certain amount of excitement and humor. Today, Dagmar Geisler lives with her family in the Franconian Switzerland.
