Story

What Animals Want to Tell Us!

- 2nd book by behavioral scientist and best-selling author Karsten Breusing
- Short chapters with many pictures, info boxes and funny illustrations
- Scientific facts easy to understand
- Translated into 7 languages

Talking with animals, living and researching in the wild – sounds like a dream job for everyone who loves animals! But how do animals communicate? Can animals understand us and can we understand them? Once again, Karsten Breusing amazes his small and grown-up readers with extraordinary stories about the animal kingdom. Who would have thought that animals have a language just like humans?
