Story

Explain it to me, I want to know!

Haaatschi! When Ina and Viktor visit inventor Mr Mai in his workshop, they have to sneeze a lot: His sneezing machine has exploded! Where do we put all the sneezing powder now? And why do we have to sneeze at all? Fortunately, master sniffer Sherry Lock's nose is free, because she really needs it. But why are dogs so good at smelling? Not a single fart goes unnoticed ... Wait, can snakes actually fart?

These and 15 other children's questions are answered in this exciting, humorous and varied read-aloud book. For all those who can't get enough knowledge and research!

- For all clever children aged 4 and over

- The best children's questions answered in an entertaining and age-appropriate way in stimulating read-aloud stories
