Story

This volume of the successful "History Mysteries"-series takes crime-story readers back to the year BC 332: the victorious general Alexander the Great has conquered Tyre. But soon there is no reason to celebrate any more: Alexander's men repeatedly fall victim to mysterious attacks. When they go in search of the perpetrators, Timokrates and Kallippe, the children of Alexander's personal physician, are suddenly in mortal danger...

Against a backdrop of historic events, children from various epochs solve mysteries. Whether it is a theft in a monastery, a gang of confidence tricksters in Barbarossa's time, or a plot centered on the payment of Varus' legionaries - our "History Mysteries" bring the Middle Ages, ancient Egypt and the Roman Empire to life. The detailed appendix provides information about the epoch in question. "History Mysteries" make history fun!
