Story

A PROFOUND, NERVE-SHATTERING STORY AT THE HIGHEST LEVEL

Right in the middle of a dangerous drop, the elevator that Valentine, Masha, Basti and Lucy are sitting in suddenly stops. After an evening spent enduring dizzying heights, the elevator starts moving again after sunset. Instead of feeling relieved, though, Masha can't stop thinking about the conversation she overheard a few hours ago, when she was threatened. Has one of the strange men been using the elevator? Could he possibly be waiting for them to be delivered directly to him, as soon as they step out of the lift?

- Breathtaking, fast-paced story
- Apparently idyllic love story, a devastating tragedy, a terrible guilty secret from the past and its impact
- Four volumes, to be published in brief intervals

Janet Clark

Janet Clark wrote her first novel when she was eleven. Although her one and only reader was convinced of its quality, many further paths through different countries and professions had to be followed before Janet

Clark's second work was written. This was an immediate success, and since then her fan community has been growing steadily. Nowadays, the author lives in Munich, with her husband and three children.
