Story

Recounting the most popular tales from the Old Testament, an ideal medium for getting started with Religion and the Bible

- The most important stories from the Old Testament retold briefly and understandably in several sentences.
- First religious education for children from 2 years
- Modern and lovingly illustrated

In this board book, the best-known Bible stories from the Old Testament are retold in just a few sentences for the very youngest children: from the creation story to Adam and Eve in paradise, Noah's ark, Moses as a foundling, and Jonah and the whale. An ideal introduction for parents who want to convey religious topics to their little ones in a child-friendly and understandable way.
