Story

Here comes Bulli, the cleverest pony in the world!

- Bulli loves Lina and Lina doesn't like horses...
- Pony tales meet detective stories: Bulli and Lina solve a mystery in every book
- A comical series about a talking pony, by bestselling authors: funny pony books are on trend!
- The alternating narrative perspective makes the books great fun to read
- Less text than in WINSTON (152 pages)
- True friendship and feisty pony fun!

Bulli is far and away the cleverest pony in the world, although unfortunately nobody seems to have realised it yet. But one day Lina turns up on the neighbouring farm. Bulli is overjoyed, and determined to make friends with her. There's just one problem: Lina thinks ponies are stupid. If there's one thing she can't stand – one thing she finds positively vile – it's horses. They give her the heebie jeebies. Bulli, on the other hand, even though he is very well looked after, feels there is one thing missing from his life. He wants a human of his own: his own little girl. And so, from the moment Bulli sets eyes on Lina in the stables, he has only one mission in life: to get Lina to be his owner!

What happens in Vol. 2:

Bulli and Lina are finally friends and because friends do everything together, Lina has to learn to ride. Being a show horse in the past, Bulli is the perfect teacher, isn't he? Someone seems to make things difficult for Bulli! Together with the other ponys they try to find the villain.

Frauke Scheunemann

Frauke Scheunemann was born in 1969 in Düsseldorf, and qualified as a lawyer. She started by working on a placement with the North German Radio, and ended up as a journalist and press spokesperson. Since 2002 she has been a freelance author and writes very successful novels with her sister Wiebke Lorenz under the Anne Hertz pseudonym. The entire Anne Hertz output amounts to one million books. In 2010 Scheunemann's first solo novel appeared, called Dackelblick, which was an instant bestseller and became the first volume in a much-loved series. Frauke Scheunemann is married and lives in Hamburg with her husband and four children, and Elmo the dog.
