Story

After the death of her grandpa, Summer has become quiet and introverted. When she spends the holiday with her sister in the Oceanlife Rescue Center, she finds a new friend as well as Jack, a lone dolphin. Jack is afraid of the life in freedom and, like Summer, of the humans. Summer is the only one who may approach him. The dolphin starts to trust her and a deep connection arises between them. When Jack finally can be released into the wild, Summer has learned to laugh again.
