Story

A wonderful experience with the Hidden Object Book about animals!

Today the kindergarten is taking a trip to the wildlife park - how many great animals there are to discover: young boars romp in the mud, lynx relax on rocks, storks feed their offspring, cuddly bunnies play in the petting zoo, and in the evening the bats wake up. What an exciting day! In this fuzzy picture book, children can explore the local animal world, discover lots of fun details, and look for the little stuffed giraffe hidden on each double-page spread.

- For curious children ages 2 and up
- With lots of lively details to discover, marvel at and explore
- Ideal for reading aloud and storytelling

- Teaches important core skills such as attention, logical connection, language skills, and concentration
- Shows children the local animal world and awakens their interest, desire and joy in nature
- Loving and nature-oriented illustrations
