Story

Full speed ahead!

Fantastic water magic, boring lessons and new friendships - the magical school ship sets sail.

Volume 3 of the adventurous series

Setting sail for the mermaid race: Only the Wellenkron crew can warn the sea folk about the villain Stanislaus Himmelrot. But they are too late! Stanislaus and Vita have seized the last part of the legendary map and are already lurking on the island of the ancestors. To thwart their dark machinations, Marie and her friends must find the Palace of the Oceans - probably the most powerful place and the source of all water magic

On a magical journey with the Wellenkron

Water can be whirled up, frozen or given the shape of animals: In this adventurous and magical book series for children aged 8 and up, anything is possible! On board the ship Wellenkron, the floating school on the sea, cohesion, friendship and fun lessons take centre stage. Full of humour and excitement, author Anna Lisa Kiesel combines everyday school life with the breathtaking magic of the ocean. Cool black and white illustrations by Leonie Daub bring the crew to life. Come on board too! For fans of The School of Magical Beasts and Harry Potter.

Anna Lisa Kiesel

Anna Lisa Kiesel, born in Graz in 1989, started reading and writing before leaving school and has hardly put down her pen since. She quickly abandoned her German studies, which she began at the age of 15, and instead trained as a photographer and worked as a freelance copywriter. She has since dedicated herself entirely to children's and young adult books and is constantly inspired by her daughter and son to write new stories.
