Story

When evening comes, is it empty and quiet in the school? No way! The school then belongs to the three friends and they even have to deal with a burglar! Can the three friends defend their school?

About Reading Lions (Year 2):

The Reading Lions for second grade turn children into reading pros: popular first reading topics ensure excitement and fun. Thanks to a well-balanced text-to-picture ratio and a large font designed especially for beginning readers, children aged 7 and older can easily grasp the content. Accompanying information and explanations also deepen their general knowledge.
