Story

An enchanting Little Forest Elf

Somewhere deep in the woods under a deep forest canopy, you can find the elves. Each of them has an own job in the nature. There they live in harmony with the animals and trees, flowers and roots. All of them take care of each other. But now and then something dark meddles in the forest community...

- A new, courageous character!
- Warmhearted humor
- Rubinia is caring and strong, she has her own head
- For Story Time with boys and girls or Young Readers (6-9 years)

What happens in Volume 2:

For weeks now, Rubinia cannot wait for the moment she'll receive a magic wand and be assigned to a task in the forest. But instead, she receives a talisman with a red stone and is supposed to ensure harmony in the forest. Har ... what? She doesn't understand her task and feels disappointed.

But then, there is an argument during the festival and deep in her heart, Rubinia knows that she must help. That's when the talisman shines and the forest elf realizes that her purpose is a very special one ...
