Story

Syllable stories for learning to read

- Successful "Reading Pirate" titles in a new look
- Supports acquisition of reading competency through coloured syllables
- The difficulty level of the texts ties in directly with "Reading Lions Year 2".
- Popular with teachers, educators, and parents who want to help their children learn to read

What's in the salad? Daniela is amazed when she finds the green creature in her bowl. Udo and his friends, on the other hand, discover something special in the stream - a bubble monster that makes great bubbles! Can it also play soccer?

Marliese Arold

Marliese Arold was born in 1958 in Erlenbach on the Main and studied at the College for Librarianship in Stuttgart, focusing on libraries for children. She enjoyed writing and in 1983 her first children's and teenagers' books were published. Today, she is working as a freelance author for several publishing houses.
