Story

NOT FOR WEAK SHEEP!

Ham has discovered a terrible thing: there are monsters at the edge of the wood and they are gobbling up the trees! The monsters are five times bigger than a bear, have awfully long necks and sharp teeth that stick out of their mouths. There are also people jumping on and off them, which can mean nothing good. Ham knows that he has to do something. So he sets off to find his friends Quentin and Wild Ram to ask them for help. But it's not that easy to locate them, and Ham must experience some dangerous adventures before he can catch up with them – and is given a monster surprise!

- Unusual animal gang: forest meets farm
- A riotous adventure with plenty of witty dialogue
- A book for the whole family: for reading out loud or to oneself

Vanessa Walder

Vanessa Walder was born in Heidelberg, Germany in 1978. She grew up in Vienna, Austria, where she later studied the law and became a journalist. During her time at the university she worked for the Red Cross and the Austrian BookClub for Young Adults. In 2001 her first novel, „sisters“ was published by Loewe publishing. Since then Walder has written many books for children and young adults, which were translated into 30 languages, some of them leading the German children's bookcharts for several weeks. Her trilogy „The Wild Bah“ has been adapted for theatre and ist currently in pre-production for an animated streaming show. The trilogy „The Unbearables & me“ received raving reviews from 2019 to 2022, and the new book series „The secret lives of animals“ seems to win just as many readers' hearts.

Vanessa Walder also writes screenplays for movies. „Here comes Lola“ hit cinemas in Europas in 2010 and won several prizes at festivals. In 2016 the even more successful movie „Conni & Co“ followed. A sequel was released in 2017 under director Til Schweiger. Walder also wrote the screenplay for the international production of the animated movie „Bayala“, which was released in October 2019. 2017, 2018 and 2019 Walder received several grands for her screenplays. The movie „Lieber Kurt“, based on a screenplay by Vanessa Walder and Til Schweiger, will hit cinemas on September 15th 2022.

Vanessa Walder has been living in Berlin since 2008.
