Story

Mila & Adesso – Come to the Riding School

- Hook: the riding school trains students to be professional show jumpers!
- Mila and Adesso train hard from book to book, at the same time a first love captures her attention...

Mila's parents leave the country for their jobs and together with her two favourite horses, she is to spend a year at her aunt's Island Dreams Riding School, which prepares students for a professional riding career. She enjoys show jumping more and more, and soon discovers her talent. And she falls in love head over heels for the first time. So she's got to decide who to spend more time with... When all the other students at the Island Dreams Riding School have gone away on vacation, Mila and Charly are the only ones staying behind. But does that mean they're in for a boring holiday? Far from it – a group of young riders has set up camp at the Icelandic horse stables. When their group leader suddenly disappears without a trace, everyone sets out to look for him. During the search. When it comes to her own life, however, Michel is starting to play a more and more important role...
