Story

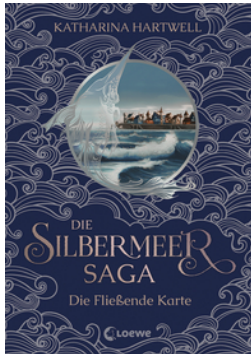

A mysterious realm of islands far north, a world full of fantastic creatures and a strong heroine...

- New, epic fantasy world
- Award-winning author Katharina Hartwell
- Absolutely unique storytelling
- Strong, female protagonist

This story begins with the Cold Weeks, with fishermen who don't trust the sea and the missing children of Colm.

A black feather is the only thing that is left of Edda's brother Tobin. Right in the beginning of the Cold Weeks he disappeared. Just like it happens every year to one of Colm's children. No one looks for them, the sea is the enemy with its magic creatures and dangers. But for Tobin, Edda overcomes her fear and sets out into the realm of the islands. Somewhere there lives the mysterious king of the crows and it is said that it is him who took the children of the sea...
