Three in one!

Go on an adventure through history and solve three thrilling criminal cases. Isaac Newton is attacked in his laboratory, a network of conspiracies concerning Marie Curie has to be uncovered and a stolen violin case gets Albert Einstein in trouble.

In every volume young detectives can solve a crime by looking for clues and solving tricky puzzles. An appendix provides extra factual information. A truly gripping reading adventure is guaranteed!

"A mixture between historical and scientific facts that are entwined perfectly in a little criminal story!"
fantasyguide.de

"Being a thrilling story, children won't even notice the amount of general knowledge entwined in the story – they'll be caught up in the storyline." Bücher

Bellinda

Bellinda was born in 1969 in Austria. Already as a child she loved paper and started writing on it as soon as she knew how to. By now she has become a successful writer of children's books, historical fiction and crime stories.
