Bulli is far and away the cleverest pony in the world, although unfortunately nobody seems to have realised it yet. But one day Lina turns up on the neighbouring farm. Bulli is overjoyed, and determined to make friends with her. There's just one problem: Lina thinks ponies are stupid. If there's one thing she can't stand – one thing she finds positively vile – it's horses. They give her the heebie jeebies. Bulli, on the other hand, even though he is very well looked after, feels there is one thing missing from his life. He wants a human of his own: his own little girl. And so, from the moment Bulli sets eyes on Lina in the stables, he has only one mission in life: to get Lina to be his owner.

What happens in Vol. 1:

Eleven-year-old Lina is horrified when her mum decides they're going to spend the summer holidays in the countryside. Far from the city, and from her friends, she's expected to help out on her uncle's farm. And as if it's not bad enough being marooned in the middle of nowhere, one day an annoyingly persistent pony appears and starts following her around wherever she goes. But when Uncle Harper's precious koi carp goes missing, Bulli the pony sees his chance and becomes Lina's ally. Together they lie in wait, hoping to catch the thief!
